Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

CLERIC'S CORNER

(from: Father Jerry Mesley)

Spirituality is not religion. And conversely religion is not spirituality. Perhaps there was a time in your life when someone asked you, "What religion are you?" And you replied, "I am Catholic." But has anyone ever asked you about your spirituality?

Though separate the two get mixed.

Spirituality is essential to the human experience. It rises up naturally with awareness; awareness of something beyond. It's a life force like breath; it's something I notice first in someone else. Nevertheless if I give this something time . . . it comes to me, speaking and inspiring, bestowing gifts of honesty, forgiveness, gratitude. Our ancestors did not have difficulty acknowledging the spirit world. They in fact saw the entire world as spirit-filled, and immersed in mystery. What was true for them is also true for us today.

In this day and age mystery is difficult to embrace because in general people are not comfortable with stillness and with what cannot readily be grasped. It's information and facts in a predictable setting that we want. Such an attitude feeds the need to act with power so as to control. Such an attitude also victimizes spirituality; for life, after all, is rooted in uncertainty and not-knowing.

A.A.'s Big Book, Alcoholics Anonymous, comments on man's desire to control and to play God. "First of all," it declares, "we (who are in the program) had to quit playing God." The next line that follows is noteworthy . . . (because) "It didn't work."

What does work to our advantage however -- regardless of personal sin and felt lack -- is the realization that in a time of need we are more open to the spirit world. For instance, when racked with feelings of abandonment, lostness, doubt, darkness, and strife of every kind we cry out; sometimes we scream

Feelings of powerlessness are also a power that births the need to journey in search of God, and when God is found to then realize that He has been seeking me too. Ah, suffering. An experience we are always trying to avoid can now be seen as an entrance way for God. For woundedness is a way that takes me beyond the ordinary, into the extraordinary.

Children in their innocence approach spirituality differently. Namely, by way of wonderment. Parents and teachers of religion who seriously take time to teach children, in great part, by sharing their own spirit-filled life automatically stir up wonder in a child. Wonder is instinctual; it's easily aroused by stories and sharing.

Wonder never really goes away though. Sadly as life advances and becomes more complex wonder is constantly ambushed or covered over with other things. Causing that initial excitement of journeying into the spirit world to be lost in consciousness.

During this Third Week in Lent think about the necessity of working for spiritual awareness so as to gift our Catholic community with ongoing life and uniqueness. Conversely mull over the ways our Catholic faith stimulates and encourages spiritual growth particularly in the worshipping assembly (Mass).

For the adventuresome there is the challenge to rediscover spiritual wonder. This entails sitting still and allowing wonder to come to you so that it can find itself in you . . . because wonder never leaves you.

God bless you.

Fr. Jerry

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

3rd Sunday in Lent

Reading I Exodus 17:3-7

Water flowed from rock to quench the people's thirst.

Psalm 95 "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts."

Reading II Romans 5:1-2; 5-8

God's love is poured into our hearts in the gift of the spirit.

Gospel John 4:5-42

The water Jesus gives is the wellspring of eternal life.

Water is a primary symbol of the sacrament of Baptism, and we have it in abundance in today's readings: Moses and the people in the desert longing for water, St. Paul describing the love of God that, "has been poured into our hearts," and the story of Jesus and the woman at the well. Listen to these inspired scriptures today, let us contemplate what the waters of our own Baptism mean to us.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Jesus’ longest-recorded conversation with anyone is the one he has with the Samaritan woman at the well. She discovers she can be honest with Jesus and goes and tells others about him. She gives witness. She’s not the most certain, thorough or even convincing witness. But her witness is enough. It is inviting, humble, non-judgmental and sincere. What is the quality of our witness? How do our words and actions give daily testimony on behalf of Christ? During this season of Lent, how might we do a better job at proclaiming the risen Lord in word and deed?
