OPELOUSAS CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Principal – Mrs. Marty Heinz 942-5404

Diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator

Joseph Pisano, Jr. 298-2987

Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

PASTOR'S CORNER

It's been great to see our children come back to school at Opelousas Catholic. I was able to celebrate our school Mass last Tuesday for the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and there was a genuine sense of good spirit and excitement in the students, faculty and staff. Enrollment is significantly better than anticipated, and we hope under the guidance of our new principal, Mrs. Marty Heintz, that spirit continues. Opelousas Catholic provides a wonderful way to provide our children with a quality Catholic education, and I encourage every parent to consider it for the education of their children. With settling into the new school year, we begin to focus on our fall activities, and the following are a few things for which you might want to mark your calendar.

Lt. Fr. Joseph Verbis Lafleur Memorial Mass - September 7, 2017

Our annual Memorial Mass for Lt. Fr. Joseph Verbis Lafleur will take place on Thursday, September 7 at 6:30pm. The main celebrant and homilist for the Mass will be Fr. Brad Guillory, a military chaplain from our diocese. His unique insight into Fr. Lafleur's life from his perspective as both a priest and chaplain should provide fruitful reflection on the life of Fr. Lafleur and his dedication and holiness, something we should all try to emulate in our lives. Fr. Lafleur has been an inspiration for me since my arrival here at St. Landry, and being able to celebrate his life in this way makes the Memorial Mass a very special time for me. The Memorial Mass also gives us the opportunity as an entire community to learn about the extraordinary life of Fr. Lafleur. Please make plans to attend this special event celebrating the life of a man we believe is a saint and for whom St. Landry Church is "home." We especially hope that parents will bring their children so that they can learn of the rich spiritual heritage they have and the gift of faith that by God's Grace has been handed down to them.

Festival de la Grande Eglise - October 7, 2017

Please also mark your calendar for October 7, 2017 for our Third Annual "Festival de la Grande Eglise." There will also be an evening of drinks, dinner, entertainment and silent auction on Wednesday, October 4. We are very excited about this year's festival events after a very successful 2016 festival. As usual, we will have some improvements and new activities, and more details will be provided in the coming weeks.

The festival is a celebration of our church and local communities and their history, but it is also intended to be a fundraiser to help defray the costs of maintaining historic St. Landry Cemetery, which was built at a time when cemetery endowments did not exist (individual families generally cared for cemeteries and the tombs of their loved ones). With over 4,000 tomb sites, maintenance is both difficult and expensive. At the festival, not only is the local community invited, but we also reach out to all who have roots in our church community to "come home" and visit our beautiful and historic church and grounds. If you know of anyone who might like to come, please be sure to let them know about the event and invite them for a day of music, food and fun!

Schedule for Sabbatical Presentation

Finally, as promised, I've been able to put together some dates for presentations on my sabbatical this Spring. All are invited to come, and the presentations will last 45 minutes to an hour. They will be held in Valentin Hall beginning at 6pm. Below are the dates and the tentative topics for each presentation:

8/29 and 8/30 - Rome and Pope Francis

9/13 - The Holy Land

10/10 - Art, Music, and Theology

10/17 - Secular Philosophy and Theology (Faith and Reason)

10/24 - Immigration

11/7 - Other European Cities Visited/Concluding Comments/Light Reception

More details on each topic will be provided as the presentations approach. I think the series will be both fun and a learning experience for all of us. I hope to see you there!

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING
Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah 56:1, 6-7

The Lord brings foreigners into his house of prayer.

Psalms 67

"O God, let all the nations praise you!"

Romans 11:13-15, 29-32

The call of God is irrevocable.

Matthew 15:21-28

Great is the faith of the Canaanite woman.

The Canaanite woman breaks through social and political barriers, even challenging Jesus as she seeks relief for her child. By responding to her faith, Jesus shows us how his mission continues to broaden and widen in its outreach to the world. Let us examine the boundaries that we set, and listen for God's challenge to break them down.

Prayer for Protection Against Hurricanes

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.

VOICES NEEDED!

If you would like to join either of our choirs, come to practice and sign up!

- Adult (10am) Choir – practice immediately following 10am Mass each Sunday
- Youth (5pm) Choir – practice @ 5:30pm on Thursdays.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today's first reading, the Lord speaks through the prophet Isaiah during a time of political dissolution and moral decline. The prophet had warned of God's judgment against people for the feelings of self-importance they found in their possessions, and condemned them for various forms of economic injustice such as exploiting the poor and immigrants. Good stewards know that Isaiah's message is as compelling today as it was in the time of the kingdom of Judah: Do the right thing. Offer justice and compassion toward others. Be honest in all your dealings. And remember to observe the day of the Lord.
