Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Many thanks to all those who helped with the beautiful liturgy at the Fr. Lafleur Memorial Mass last Thursday evening. We very much appreciate Fr. Brad Guillory for his willingness to travel here and be the main celebrant and homilist. As usual, it was a very beautiful liturgy, and we thank him for his willingness to be with us for this very special event in the life of our parish. We also give our heartfelt appreciation to all who participated in the liturgy: The priests and deacons who served and attended; Deacon Joubert, who coordinated the liturgy; the choir and its director, J.P. Porrier; the lay liturgical ministers, including the sacristans, lectors and altar servers; and the various service groups who were in attendance (Catholic Daughters, Knights of Columbus, Knights of Peter Claver and Military Honor Guard). We especially thank the Friends of Fr. Lafleur, coordinated by Richard and Carrol Lafleur, for helping to cultivate devotion to Fr. Lafleur and promote his cause for sainthood. Through the efforts of the Friends of Fr. Lafleur, which is active all year long, our St. Landry Church community better understands our rich history. Through the good example of those who came before us, we are inspired to live our lives more firm in our faith!

Upcoming Events

As usual, we have a busy September and October here in our parish. We will begin with our annual financial report on the weekend of September 24th. The following week Ben Pitre will be ordained a transitional deacon in Rome on September 28, and many of you as well as myself will be travelling to Rome to attend the ordination and celebrate with Ben and his family. Our annual Festival de la Grande Eglise will kick off Wednesday, October 4th with an evening of entertainment and silent auction at the Delta Grand, followed by the festival day itself on Saturday, October 7th here on the church grounds. We then move to our annual Cemetery Tours. The Cemetery tours will take place the weekends of October 14/15 and 21/22. This year's theme is "Leaders and Legends." Please mark your calendar for one of the tours, which will take place Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon of both weekends.

Volunteers Needed!

Like last year, many volunteers will be needed on the festival day, and there are sign-up sheets in the back of the church for those who are able to help. Please be generous with your time and any help you can give. Even an hour or two at the festival is very helpful and very much appreciated! We should also take this opportunity to thank the volunteers who have been working all year to plan the festival. The chair of the festival is Deacon Dwayne Joubert, and the Festival Executive Committee members are Yvonne Normand, Sharon Ortego and Harry Ragas. There are many other sponsors and chairs of the different events for the festival, and we thank each of them for their willingness to help!

From the office of the Vicar General, Diocese of Lafayette:

"Bishop J. Douglas Deshotel informs all clergy and lay faithful of the Diocese of Lafayette that Mr. Thomas "Mac" Smith is prohibited from speaking, disseminating any printed materials, or exercising any ministry or apostolate in any parish, school or Catholic institution in the Diocese of Lafayette. In particular he is not to promote alleged spiritual messages, "soaking prayer," apparitions, locutions, or visions etc. by means of any Catholic entity in the Diocese of Lafayette. All clergy and lay faithful who are in communion with the Church are to abstain from participating in those activities and from any involvement in the spreading of Mr. Thomas "Mac" Smith's writings, teachings or alleged spiritual messages. For those who are disappointed by this decision, I encourage you to seek security in Jesus Christ, the Sacraments, and the Scriptures."

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING
Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ezekiel 33:7-9

We are responsible for one another.

Psalms 95

"If today you hear his voice, harden not your voice."

Romans 13:8-10

We are bound by the law of love.

Matthew 18:15-0

Wherever two or three are gathered in his name, Jesus is present.

Our readings give us a model to follow when differences arise among us. Paul exhorts us to love one another. Jesus tells us to, "treat him as you would a gentile or a tax collector." How did Jesus treat them? What does this mean to us?

Prayer for Protection Against Hurricanes

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today's second reading Saint Paul enjoins us to be indebted to no one. Debt creates the kind of pressure that impedes our relationship with Jesus Christ. But there is one debt we will always owe and never be able to pay off fully: The debt of showing love to others. We will never reach the place where we can say, “Now I love others as much as I ought, and that's enough.” No matter how much we've grown in faith we will always be required to grow in love. Good stewards realize that God does not call them just to love those who are easy to love, but to love the unloved and the hard-to-love people in this world as well. This week, remind yourself: “I am put here as an ambassador of God's love.”

YOUTH CONFERENCE

Holy Ghost Catholic Church will sponsor an SVD Youth Day Conference on 9/23 from 9-6 at the Holy Ghost Parish Life Center, 748 N. Union Street in Opelousas. This year's theme is “Youth Claim Your Blessings.” To register or for more information, call 337-296-0005 or 337-308-0397.

THAT MAN IS YOU

It has been named “Operation Viking Care.” Baby diapers and cleaning supplies have been collected, and in the third week, paper towels and toilet paper will be gathered; then the week of Sep. 18th, socks and underwear; and the last week of Sep. 25th, it will be school supplies.
