Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Many thanks to all who participated in our Memorial Mass on All Souls Day last Thursday. Unfortunately, due to my father's passing, I was unable to be there as I was in Philadelphia, PA for his committal service. I'm sure, as usual, it was a beautiful liturgy, and I know the families who grieve appreciate the support of those who were able to attend. I will be one of those people next year. We thank all our servers, extraordinary ministers, lectors, choir members and sacristans, as well as Deacon Joubert who coordinated the liturgy. Their work and dedication is very much appreciated. Please be sure to keep in your prayers those who mourn, as well as continuing to pray for the repose of souls in purgatory.

Many, Many Thanks from Myself and My Family for Your Support at My Dad's Passing

As mentioned above, I'll be out this week to attend my Father's committal service in Philadelphia. However, I want you to know how grateful I am to you all for your outpouring of support during my and my family's time of need after Dad's passing. The prayers, cards, flowers, expressions of sympathy and condolences, as well attendance and kind words to Mom and our family at his funeral have meant so much to me and my family and have helped us through this time. I mentioned last week that there was a really beautiful effect your goodness had on my Mother, so I want to explain this a little.

As is the case with all mother's, Mom worries about her children and their well-being. In our case, my mother has a particular concern about myself and my brother, since we are priests and don't have a biological family to look after us. Mom was always concerned about me being in the Diocese of Lafayette, since I'm not a native and have no siblings living in the diocese. Her fears were allayed and she was truly at peace (and told me so) when she came to my ordination in 2006 and saw the beautiful outpouring of love and affection at my ordination and the surrounding events. She knew the diocese had become my home, not only geographically but also in the people of the diocese.

Again, in my assignment to St. Landry and living in Opelousas, she also had the same concerns, although less so. The outpouring from our church community here at St. Landry again moved her to more peace about her son living in a place with which she was not familiar. The kind words many of you told her both in person at the funeral and in the notes sent really helped her to know that her son was okay just where he was. In many ways at this stage of my life, her peace is my peace. For this, I am truly and especially grateful to all of you for not only giving me your love and support, but also giving my mother such a wonderful gift! May God bless you all for your goodness!!

Mark Your Calendar for Annual Volunteer Appreciation Banquet - November 26th

We are rapidly approaching Thanksgiving and the end of the Liturgical Year, which concludes November 26 when we celebrate The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. As has now become custom, we will also have our annual appreciation banquet for all our volunteers that evening after the 5pm Mass at the Opelousas Catholic cafeteria. All who volunteer and give the gift of time to our church community are invited, but at the risk of omitting someone (please accept my apology in advance!) these volunteers and their spouses are invited:

Members of The Altar Society and Knights of Columbus
Money Counters
Readers
Extraordinary Ministers of Communion
Altar Servers and their parents
Festival Volunteers
Ushers
Members of the Parish Advisory Board and Finance Council
Trustees
Sacristans
Members of our choirs and musicians
CLJ/Bible Study Leaders
Religious Ed Instructors

We thank all of our volunteers for their gift of time and talent, a gift without which we would not be able to function as a church community. Please make plans to attend, and we look forward to seeing you there!

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING
Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Malachi 1:14b-2:2b, 8-10 Worship the one God who created us.

Psalms 131 "In you, Lord, I have found my peace."

1 Thessalonians 2:7b-9, 13 God is a gentle mother caring for her children.

Matthew 23:1-12 Jesus taught that we have only one master who is in Christ.

Today our readings challenge us to practice what we preach. Imagine being a scribe or Pharisee and hearing Jesus tell the people to ignore what you do and only do what you preach! Let us each examine our own lives... Do we do what God asks of us, or do we only pay lip service to God's commands?

READINGS FOR NEXT WEEKEND

Wisdom 6:12-16; Psalm 63; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18; Matthew 25:1-13

VETERAN'S DAY / PATRIOTIC ROSARY

This week, on Saturday, November 11, our country celebrates Veteran's Day, a day when we take time to give thanks to those who have served in our armed forces. As we are reminded every time armed conflict occurs in our world, in order to protect individual and societal freedoms, including the freedom to practice our faith, an armed force is necessary. We are thankful for the brave men and women who have served or are currently serving in our armed forces, and we pray for them and their families. John's Gospel tells us: "There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends." We thank God for raising up these men and women who are willing, if necessary, to lay down their life so that others have the opportunity to live a life in freedom and full human dignity. We pray that God will continue to bless our country, and that He bless and keep in his care our veterans and active service members. May we always appreciate what they have done for us! A Patriotic Rosary will be prayed immediately following the 4pm Mass on Veteran's Day.

ANGOLA BUS TRIP

Do you have a loved one in Angola that you'd like to visit? On Sunday, Dec. 10th the Diocese is sponsoring a bus trip at no charge for people in need of transportation to visit loved ones who are incarcerated. The bus will depart from St. Paul's Catholic Church @ 7:30am. Please call Stephanie Bernard w/ the Office of Justice & Peace to reserve your seat. (337)261-5545.

FOOD for the POOR

As usual we will focus on helping those who are in need during the holiday season. We will again place boxes at the doors of the church during the month of November for non-perishable food donations. The donations will be sent to ICONS, our local food pantry, for distribution to those in need in our community. Please be generous in helping during the holiday season.
