Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

PASTOR'S CORNER

PRO-LIFE BABY BOTTLE CAMPAIGN THIS WEEKEND – DESORMEAUX FOUNDATION

Baby bottles will be available today after Masses for donations to benefit our local pregnancy resource center, maternity home, and mother & baby boutique which provide necessary items for both mothers and children. The mothers also receive free pregnancy testing, consultation, education on chastity, shelter, food, and other services to provide the women and children their needs. This is an opportunity to not only say that we are Pro-Life, but to let our actions show that we are Pro-Life! Please return your donations in the bottles next weekend and return the baby bottles so that they may be reused. Thanks in advance for your support of this most worthy cause!!

FR. LAFLEUR AWARDED DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS

It was an honor for our church to host the award of The Distinguished Service Cross and Purple Heart to Lt. Fr. Verbis J. Lafleur. It was a beautiful ceremony and we are especially happy that our high school students from Opelousas Catholic were able to attend. Many thanks to all of those in attendance, especially our Bishop, Douglas Deshotel, our Congressman, Ralph Abraham, and all of the local governmental officials. Thanks to all who helped apply for and promote the award: Peter Guerra, Congressman Abraham, Senator Cassidy and of course the Lafleur Family, especially Richard and Carrol Lafleur.

The award was made by proclamation of the President of the United States, which was read at the ceremony:

"The President of the United States of America has awarded the Distinguished Service Cross to Chaplain (First Lieutenant) Joseph V. Lafleur, 19th Bombardment Group, for extraordinary heroism from 30 December 1941 through 7 September 1944. While evading capture aboard the SS Mayon, Chaplain Lafleur was instrumental in saving three men who jumped overboard during an attack from a Japanese bomber. After the three men were rescued, he then assisted soldiers into lifeboats until he was the last man on the ship, denying his own chance to escape to Australia. As a prisoner of war after 1 January 1942, Chaplain Lafleur constructed a chapel at the prison camp to minister to men of all faiths. He continuously advocated for food and medicine for the prisoners, often intervening on their behalf, resulting in beatings at the hands of his captors. Later, while aboard the Japanese ship Shinyo Maru bound for Japan, he organized distribution of the meager rations allotted to approximately 400 prisoners and was observed giving his rations to others. On 7 September 1944, the submarine USS Paddle, believing the ship was transporting Japanese soldiers, sank the Shinyo Maru. Chaplain Lafleur was last seen aiding prisoners to escape in spite of Japanese guards firing small arms weapons and throwing hand grenades in the ship's hold. Chaplain Lafleur's personal valor and self-sacrifice in the face of grave danger are in keeping with the highest traditions of military service and reflect great credit upon himself and the Army of the United States."

At the ceremony, Fr. Lafleur was also awarded a second Purple Heart for the wounds he received after he was captured. We recall that Fr. Lafleur's life was not only saintly, but one of heroic actions in battle. His first Distinguished Service Cross and Purple Heart were awarded for his actions on 8 December 1941, when his base was attacked and he tended to the wounded while under fire (himself being wounded as well).

We should certainly take pause to thank God for the life of Fr. Lafleur and all who have served honorably in our military whose stories are not known, to be inspired by their goodness and bravery, and to rededicate ourselves to living a good and holy life in light of the cost of the freedoms, both secular and religious, that we have been given.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

*We are to worship
God alone, the God who calls us by name.*

Psalms 96

"Give the Lord glory and honor."

1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b

We have received the gospel not only in word, but in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Matthew 22:15-21

*"Repay to Caesar
what belongs to Caesar and to God
what belongs to God."*

Our first reading gives us the answer to the Gospel question about what belongs to God and what belongs to Caesar. All of Cyrus' power comes from God. Just so with Caesar. What does he really have that does not come first from God? So the question is a false dichotomy, for everything belongs to God. Let us pray for the grace to remember this when we face questions about where our true allegiance lies.

READINGS FOR NEXT WEEKEND

Exodus 22:20-26; Psalm 18; 1 Thess 1, 5c-10;
Matthew 22:34-40

Prayer for Protection Against Hurricanes

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.

VOICES NEEDED!

If you would like to join either of our choirs, come to practice and sign up!

- Adult (10am) Choir – practice immediately following 10am Mass each Sunday
- Youth (5pm) Choir – practice @ 5:30pm on Thursdays.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT...

In today's Gospel we hear proclaimed a profound teaching by Jesus on stewardship. What belongs to Caesar? What belongs to God? Christian stewards recognize that everything they have belongs to God. God created them, and God has claims on every part of their existence. They also realize that the sovereign is an institution whose nature and purpose is to promote the common good and protect the welfare of its citizenry. As long as it accomplishes this mission while treating every single person with deep respect, justice and compassion, it merits the steward's support and cooperation. Christian stewards know what belongs to the Lord, and they are better citizens when they live their lives according to his Gospel.

Nevertheless, each one of you was present with me, as well, through your prayers and your love. Please continue to pray for me and for the parish, and I will do the same for you.
