Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

PASTOR'S CORNER

This weekend, we celebrate the Holy Family: Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Our focus is on the Human Nature of Jesus. Not only did he become flesh and is like us in all things except sin, but he grew up in a family and was raised by Mary and Joseph. This celebration reminds us that Jesus is fully human like us, subject to all the struggles and trials of life just as we are, and was willing to give Himself to die on a cross for our salvation. We are reminded that we can imitate Him in all things, especially completely giving our life over to God, by the power of God's Grace!

This weekend, we might also say: "Happy Mary, Mother of God Day!" instead of "Happy New Year." That may sound a bit strange, however that is the feast day that we celebrate on January 1st each year. The celebration is not as much about our Blessed Mother (although her unique role in Jesus' life and her willingness to consent to God's Will is something for us to both appreciate and imitate), as it is about the fact that Jesus is indeed God in His Divine Nature and therefore, Mary is the Mother of God. The celebration of this feast is intended to strengthen our faith about the two natures of Jesus (both divine and human), to celebrate the fact that God Himself has visited us on earth, and to properly understand the special role our Blessed Mother was given in God's plan of salvation. Because of its importance, January 1st is usually a holy day of obligation. However, this year because it falls on a Monday, we are NOT obliged to attend Mass that day. Our schedule is Mass at 9am January 1st.

As we continue to celebrate Christmastide, we will celebrate the Epiphany of the Lord next Sunday. Traditionally, this feast was celebrated on January 6, ending the "twelve days" days of Christmas. However, we now celebrate it liturgically on the Sunday between January 2 and January 8. "Epiphany" comes from a Greek verb meaning "to reveal." Therefore, the Epiphany celebrates God's revealing or manifesting Jesus' identity as true God, Messiah, and Savior of the world. It not only commemorates the fact that Jesus came to save us, but that God revealed the identity of Jesus to the world. The Gospel reading for the day is from the second chapter of Matthew, where the magi from the east seek the newborn "King of the Jews," and of course, find Him and pay Him homage. We are reminded in the Epiphany that God not only sent his Incarnate Son as our Lord and Savior, but that He did so in a way that we could recognize and understand, and then follow Him in the way of Truth and Peace. Like the magi, our mission is to seek Him, come to know Him, and pay homage to Him not only with our words, but also by living our lives in the way Jesus taught us.

The Christmas Season will come to a close next Monday, January 8, when we will celebrate the Baptism of The Lord and are reminded of our own baptism and the Grace God has given to us to lead a life in imitation of Jesus and renew our resolve to cooperate with the Grace we have received. Let us continue to celebrate the Christmas Season this week and next. God has given us this time and these celebrations for us to remember the Good News of our Salvation and we should enjoy and cherish every moment of it. For the most part, the world will return to business as usual the day after Christmas and January 2. After our Advent vigilance, preparation and anticipation let us take full advantage of rejoicing and growing closer to Jesus during the Christmas Season.

Many Thanks for the beautiful Christmas Liturgies

After next weekend, we will we will return to "Ordinary Time" liturgically, changing from white to green for our liturgical color. With the beginning of Ordinary Time, we thank all those who made our celebration of Christmas so beautiful. The music was wonderful throughout, and we thank our musicians and singers: The Adult Choir and their director J.P. Porrier; our youth choir and their director, Rafael Henry; and Marla Faust/Stacy Caffery. Our Altar Society did a wonderful job in decorating the church, and they were coordinated by Deacon Joubert. We thank our various ministers at the liturgies, our readers, extraordinary ministers, servers and sacristans who volunteered their time and made adjustments to their personal schedules to serve us. We thank those who donated to the flower fund, making it possible to beautifully decorate our sanctuary and church. And of course, our wonderful office staff and maintenance crew did a great job over the course of the holidays. Again, thanks to all!

A Happy and Blessed New Year to you and all your loved ones!!

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Holy Family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph

Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14

Those who fear the Lord honor their parents.

Psalm 105

"The Lord remembers his covenant forever."

Colossians 3:12-21

Family life in the Lord

Luke 2:22-40

The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom.

The feast of the Holy Family has a choice of readings. Sirach and St. Paul's letter to the Colossians concentrate on the family and our calling to treat each other as believers in the Lord and as Christians. The alternative readings about Sarah and Abraham tell of God fulfilling the promise to Abraham that he would have descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky. The Gospel portrays the devotion of Mary and Joseph, traveling to Jerusalem to present Jesus to God.

Jan. 1 - Mary, the Holy Mother of God: Num 6:22-27; Ps 67; Gal 4:4-7; Lk 2:16-21

Jan. 7 – Epiphany of the Lord: Is 60:1-6; Ps 72; Eph 3:2-3a, 5-6; Mat 2:1-12

VOICES NEEDED!

If you would like to join either of our choirs, come to practice and sign up!

- Adult (10am) Choir – practice immediately following 10am Mass each Sunday
- Youth (5pm) Choir – practice @ 5:30pm on Thursdays.

ALTAR SOCIETY

Our Altar Society meets monthly and is instrumental in assisting in maintaining and decorating our church. If you are interested in joining our group, call Jane Savoy @ 945-5487.

THANK-YOU!

The family of Marion Harmon expresses its gratitude to the “Friends of the Bereaved” for their kind expressions of sympathy at the passing of their father.

CONFIRMATION 2018

There will be meeting on Sunday, 1/07/18 @ 3:30pm in Valentin Hall for all students and parents of Juniors who have registered for Confirmation in 2018. This is an important informational meeting. Please call Deacon Joubert with concerns.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Catholic High School in New Iberia has a job opening for the position of principal for the school year 2018-19. Interested parties should visit the school's website for further details. The deadline to apply is 1/05/18. Visit the school's website for further details. The deadline to apply is 1/05/18.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today's Gospel we again hear the story of the nativity from Saint Luke; of the motherhood of Mary, the vessel who brought forth our savior in a dark corner of the world and reflected on this sacred revelation in her heart. Christian stewards are also the vessels by which Christ is carried out into the world. They continually seek ways to reveal Jesus in the world's dark corners. In this new year, let us ask God to give us the courage to bring forth Christ to those who are strangers to us, who think differently than we do or who may not believe that Christ can make a difference in their lives.

ENGAGED COUPLES

Spend a weekend away from the cares and distractions of everyday living. Attend a Catholic Engaged Encounter Weekend. The weekend is open to any engaged couple wanting to prepare for a deeper more meaningful life together in a marriage recognized by the Catholic Church according to its Church law. Upcoming weekend dates are January 12-14, March 9-11, and April 27-29. For cost of weekends, other dates, and to learn more, visit our website at www.lafayettecee.org or contact Paul & Carolyn Trahan at 254-8947 or 898-9257, or cee.trahan@gmail.com.

IN MEMORY

Many thanks for the anonymous donation received in memory of Frank & Marie Diesi, R.C. & Elaine Musgrove, Sal & Betty Diesi, Buddy Labbe, David Diesi, Louis Diesi, & Sal Diesi, Jr. May they rest in peace!
